

I strongly object to Sinclair trying to influence the election so unfairly. This is a looming danger to our Constitution because it certainly has the potential to interfere with the unbiased, factual news that we must have to insure a nation that serves the interests of all its citizens.